Submission Checklist

Indicate that this submission is ready to be considered by this journal by checking off the following (comments to the editor can be added below).

- The submission has not been previously published, nor is it before another journal for consideration (or an explanation has been provided in Comments to the Editor).
- The submission file is in OpenOffice, Microsoft Word, RTF, or WordPerfect document file format.
- Where available, URLs for the references have been provided.
- The text is single-spaced; uses a 12-point font; employs italics, rather than underlining (except with URL addresses); and all illustrations, figures, and tables are placed within the text at the appropriate points, rather than at the end.
- The text adheres to the stylistic and bibliographic requirements outlined in the Author Guidelines, which is found in About the Journal.
- If submitting to a peer-reviewed section of the journal, the instructions in Ensuring a Blind Review have been followed.

Step 3 is where you enter metadata about your submission: Authors, Title, Abstract, etc. Although step 3 comes up with your name as the author by default, you may be acting on behalf of another author and may wish to change the Author name. You may add more than one author by clicking the "Add Author" button. If you have more than one author listed, you can reorder authors as listed in your citation by pressing up and down arrows; you can also designate which author is the primary email contact by clicking on a radio button.

The screenshot shows a journal submission form with several sections. At the top left is a dark blue button labeled "Add Author" with a red arrow pointing to it. To its right is a red link "Click here to add co-authors". Below this is a section titled "Title and Abstract" containing two text input fields: "Title*" and "Abstract*", both with red arrows pointing to them. A rich text editor toolbar is visible below these fields. The next section is "Indexing", with a text box for "Keywords" containing the red text "Atleast 4-5 keywords" and a "Language" dropdown menu set to "en". Below that is "Supporting Agencies" with a text box for "Agencies" containing the red text "If any, please provide the name and grant number". The "References" section follows, with a text box containing the red text "References should be in vancouver style for medical, pharmaceutical and bioemdlal journals" and "For further detials follow author guidelines". At the bottom left of the form are two buttons: "Save and continue" and "Cancel". A footnote at the bottom left states "* Denotes required field".

You must also include your article title, and may include an abstract if appropriate. The Journal Manager may also have opted to allow authors to provide their own indexing information and keywords, in which case you will see fields for that information. This information is not mandatory, and editors will have the option to edit this information at a later date.

Note: References should be in Vancouver style for medical and biomedical journals, we encourage author to follow the author guidelines.

Step 4: Upload Supplementary file

In step 4 is you can upload all supplementary files (viz Cover letter, Conflict of interest, contributors form, figures, tables etc in doc or doc. x format)

1. START 2. UPLOAD SUBMISSION 3. ENTER METADATA 4. UPLOAD SUPPLEMENTARY FILES 5. CONFIRMATION

This optional step allows Supplementary Files to be added to a submission. The files, which can be in any format, might include (a) research instruments, (b) data sets, which comply with the terms of the study's research ethics review, (c) sources that otherwise would be unavailable to readers, (d) figures and tables that cannot be integrated into the text itself, or other materials that add to the contribution of the work.

| ID | TITLE | ORIGINAL FILE NAME | ACTION |
